YOUNG PEOPLE ARE KILLED WHEN CAR HITS ELECTRIC WIRE

NATIONAL FARM STRIKE IS CALLED TO COMBAT LOSSES

APPEAL SENT OUT TO LO- CAL UNIONS REPRE- SENTING 800,000 PRO- DUCERS.

HOLD BACK CROPS Proposed Action Is in Retali- ation of Abnormal Deflation in Prices.

[By Associated Press.]
Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 18.—A nation-wide producers' strike to combat the falling prices of farm products was urged in a call sent out today by the National Farmers' Union to its local unions throughout the country.

The call, in the form of a resolution adopted at the national convention of the organization here, went outward to secretaries of local branches of the organization, which represent producers of grain, cotton, wool and livestock, said to number 800,000.

The proposed strike was urged in retaliation for what the commission considered abnormal deflation in prices of farm products, although it was asserted American farmers have been robbed of one billion dollars in reduced value of products now on hand. All farmers are appealed to to hold this year's production from the markets until "profit making levels" were restored.

The action of the National Farmers' Union was in line with a "wheat strike" called several weeks ago by the wheat growers' association of the United States. Delegates asserted a considerable quantity of this year's wheat crop was being held off the market by farmers.

To Reduce Production.
Reduction of production in the future was threatened "unless the prices of our products are fairly resulted to the end that we may obtain just returns for our labors and investments," is another resolution approved by the convention.

Officials of the organization pointed out that members were not under obligation to obey the terms of the strike, but expressed the belief that such a movement would be effective.
A conference of producers of all farmers' organizations of the country was called to meet in St.
Louis, December 16, to consider the creation of a national farm marketing board.

Resolutions Are Discussed.
The resolutions were adopted in executive session, after opening and announced later by officers of the organization. Adoption was preceded by considerable discussion, officials said.

Concerning the St. Louis meeting, Charles S. Barrett, Union City, Ga., who was elected president of the union for the fifteenth consecutive year, said today:

Simple Life Is Recommended As Direst Need

Sanity, Clear Thinking, Common Sense, Honesty, Cooperation Are Prime Requisites Today Says President-Elect in New Orleans.

[By Associated Press.]
New Orleans, Nov. 18.—President-Elect Harding will not stop at a Mexican port on his voyage to the canal zone as he had been urged to do by Mexican officials.

New Orleans, Nov. 18.—Plain living and square dealing were invoked by President-Elect Harding, in a speech here today, as the nation's strongest reliance during the coming period of after-war readjustment.

"Sanity, clear thinking, common sense, honesty and cooperation," were among the qualities he named as prime necessities in meeting the demands of the new world order, and he declared material interests and national happiness both would benefit if the United States became "a simple living people once again."

Reverses Only Temporary.
Whatever discouragements and reverses there have been he declared would be only temporary in character.

Senator Harding's speech, delivered at a luncheon of the New Orleans association of commerce, also contained a message of assurance for the industrial development of the south and an expression of hope that the ties of commercial cooperation with Latin America would be strengthened by every possible means.

Spent 5 Hours in City.
The address was a part of his five hour visit to New Orleans. He said in part:

"I believe the American people have come to realize that we must face momentous problems, and must face them with resolute courage and practical wisdom and patriotic determination. There must be no reason for pause or excuse for despair, nor place for pessimism. We are effective in solving our problems at home we shall be better able to help solve those of the world as befalls our part in modern civilization.

Civilization Society Tried.
"The world has never witnessed such an upheaval as that which came with the great war. Its civilization was never so sorely tried.
Inevitably there must be reconstruction. Unavoidably there will be readjustment. And the old order will never return. The incalculable sacrifice which we have made must be made good. We must put aside the debris of war and continue to build on solid foundations."

Sure To Be Reversed.
"We cannot escape all the consequences of fevered war or the unselfishness of its aftermath.
There are sure to be reverses.
There will be endless discouragements.
But a confident America will face them with good courage. And we will win. Surely we are going to be called upon nationally, collectively, and individually, to renounce the selfishness of the past."

League Votes On 6 Vice Presidents

Swiss President is Elected Honorary Head of First Assembly.

Geneva, Nov. 18.—The report of the council of the league of nations before the assembly of the league for consideration at today's session, as was the election of six vice-presidents. The Swiss chairman of the assembly's six commissions will comprise the bureau, or executive committee, of the league.
The council also recommended admission to yesterday's committee elections, in which the Latin countries captured 9 out of 12 chairmen and vice-chairmen.

Chairman of the assembly, M. Mottu, Swiss confederation, was elected honorary president of the first assembly of the league today. Baron Hayashi asked the delegates to vote for Viscount Ishii, Japanese ambassador to France, as Japan's candidate for a vice-president.

Giolitti is Given
Vote of Confidence
[By Associated Press.]
Rome, Nov. 17.—Heated debate, during which Premier Giolitti defended his political record and the policies of his government, preceded the vote of confidence given the cabinet in the chamber of deputies. A socialist motion censuring the government's internal policy was defeated, 291 to 85. Socialist parties allied the premier of being a reactionary and a supporter of the nationalist followers of Captain Gabriele D'Annunzio in their opposition to the socialists. The premier answered that his entire past was a protest against such an accusation.

[By Associated Press.]

has rejected the ultimatum recently presented by the Turkish nationalists demanding that the Armenians es-menia's sovereign rights.

PHALLIS IS GREEK PREMIER; CROWDS ACCLAIM EX-KING

NEW CABINET TAKES OATH OF OFFICE; OP-
POSITIONS IN DEM-ONSTRATIONS.

VENIZELOS LEAVES
Defeated Candidate Makes Secret Exit From Athens.

[By Associated Press.]
Athens, Nov. 17.—George Rhalis, the new premier of Greece, took the oath of office before Admiral Counoudiotis, the regent, this afternoon. Those who qualified in common with the premier were, Mr.
Gounaris, minister of war; M. Baldassaris, minister of interior, and Kalligeros, minister of finance.

Mr. Venizelos left the portfolio of minister of foreign affairs.
Immediately after he had qualified for office, Mr. Rhalis demanded the regent's resignation. The other members of the new cabinet will take the oath before Queen Mother Olga.

Formerly Venizelos left Athens today. Bands of civil guards, and men from many military units, went through the city during the day, accompanying former King Constantine and firing revolvers as a token of rejoicing.

A demonstration occurred in the city. There were motor cars and carriages carrying large flags and portraits of former King Constantine.
They were prominently displayed.
During the demonstration, however, no attempt was made to maintain order.

Streets Resound.
As night settled over the city, the demonstration continued with a pandemonium of yells and shouts, and pistol and rifle shots. Soldiers walked through the city tooting horns and blowing whistles.

Mr. Venizelos left secretly this afternoon on his way to Nice. The Greek yacht Narcissus was waiting for him and escorted by three British war vessels.

Prisoners in jails have been released.

FRANCE AND BRITAIN
OPPOSE CONSTANTINE
Paris, Nov. 18.—Conversations over the situation in Greece and progress between France and Great Britain, it was stated at the foreign office today. Neither country, it was said, will support the Constantine candidate without the other.

The expectation is that an understanding will be reached taking the form of a declaration of policy as to the new Greek government, which it is foreseen will reiterate opposition by France and England to the return of Ex-King Constantine to the throne.

The foreign office has received no confirmation of reports that Queen Mother Olga had been named regent of Greece. The unofficial report to that effect, however, was regarded as authentic, it was said.

GILLEN DISCLOSES MORE SHIP SCANDAL

Shipping Board Official Tells of Outstanding Army
Claims.

[By Associated Press.]
New York, Nov. 18.—Or a total of $208,243,705 in United States Shipping board claims against the army, only $30,000,000 had been collected on account up to last September, Martin J. Gillen, Racine, Wis., special assistant to John Barton Payne, former chairman of the shipping board, testified before the congressional committee investigating board affairs today.

Big Gen. Frank T. Hines, former director of transportation for the army, seemed to take "special delight" in blocking efforts to collect shipping board money. These delays before the congressional committee investigating board affairs heer today.

Little Trouble With Navy.
Mr. Gillen declared that there was "very little trouble with the navy."

Mr. Gillen testified that the claim situation was in a bad condition, and that claims were not collected or analyzed as to their nature. They totaled "into billions of dollars," he said.
Only a few settlements on these claims had been made prior to the time Mr. Payne assumed the chairmanship of the board, the witness continued, adding that Mr. Payne "resisted efforts to procure additional appropriations" for the board, as he preferred to "go country for the expressed purpose of standing money."

Contractors Flat Troubles.
Referring to the wooden ships construction program of the board, Mr. Gillen testified that the "wooden ship contractors had their trouble because of changes in contracts and specifications. They were induced to accept business on assurances that there would be three ships built a year, which Mr. Gillen declared were given by Edward N.
Hurley, former chairman of the board, did not materialize.

Rear Admiral William S. Benson, now head of the shipping board affairs, Mr. Gillen characterized as "the strongest, cleanest character" he had ever met.

ROOT WILL CALL ON SEN. HARDING

President-Elect to Discuss Policies—Maintaining a Firm Hand.

By DAVID LAWRENCE.

Washington, Nov. 18.—President-elect Harding may be far away from the politicians and the factions inside the republican party geographically speaking, but there are some things about him which indicate clearly the absence of any wavering during his absence which indicates clearly the absence of any wavering during his absence which indicates clearly the absence of any wavering during his absence.

As to the campaign, Senator Harding has let it be known through his friends that he does not want to be a public campaigner. He has let it be known that he does not want to be a public campaigner. He has let it be known that he does not want to be a public campaigner.

Incidentally from these same republican sources that are not altogether friendly to Will Hays, comes the report that the Harding-Hays relationship is a misapprehension. The report is that the Harding-Hays relationship is a misapprehension.

Root borrowing trouble. Senator Harding is credited with having remarked at the time he got the cablegram that it looked as if Mr. Root was borrowing trouble.

After Election Sores. There are always a lot of after-the-campaign revolts like the one going on against Will Hays.

TOBACCO BUYERS HAVE NO COMBINE

Not United to Force Down Farmers' Prices They Claim—Market Naturally Dull.

There is no combine of the tobacco dealers in Janesville or any other part of the state or country to force the growers to come down in prices. This is the answer made by local tobacco buyers to continued assertions upon the part of some of the growers that the buyers are holding out of the open market with the expectation of forcing the farmers to dispose of their 1920 crop.

Blues Out for Revenge.
First athletic clash between Janesville and Beloit since late in the summer takes place in the Gateway field on Saturday afternoon when the football outfits of the high schools of the rival cities clash in their annual battle. Followers of each team are here trying to outdo each other, but they are in a pretty bad fix right now.

From the time the two institutions had their first fight in 1908 on the gridiron, Beloit has held the upper hand, winning seven out of 10 games played and tying one. Not until 1911 has Janesville come away victorious.

What the Dope Tells.

On paper the dope may seem pretty bad for Janesville, especially basing it upon the only comparative score possible, that of Delavan Institute. Beloit swamped that team this season, 58 to 0; Janesville defeated the same aggregation, 14 to 0. However, since Beloit met the Delavan school very early in the season, Janesville had slowly strengthened and had a better team when this one came. Beloit, on the other hand, was standing still the meanwhile, but the work of the Janesville coach has been developing two equally strong teams so that he would never have an aggregation of cripples to deal with. Beloit, on the other hand, is the team of Pawson, Galt, and star kicker, who is kept out of the game because his studies are not up to par. The Gateway city bunch is feeling quite chipper, stating that they have met stronger teams this season than Janesville. Nevertheless, Janesville, spurred on by one week of work, has grown a confidence that will help greatly in bringing the bacon back here Saturday night.

The Blues will carry a great crowd of rooters with them to the city to the south.
The game will be Beloit's last this season. Janesville has one more, that with Monroe here on Thanksgiving afternoon.

Coach George T. Bresnahan says that his men are in top shape and stand on equal terms with other teams for chances at the championship.

The victory of Minnesota on Nov. 6, by a three point margin, over Wisconsin has not discouraged the Badger runners. They were with the support of Mark H. Wall of Eau Claire, the star of the team, who was out with an injured foot. He is expected to be in shape to run in the conference meet.

Gophers and Purdue Strong.
Minnesota and Purdue loom up as the strongest competitors with Ames, rated as a leading contender once more for the western championship. Their performance of previous years and lead the field in the coming event.

Willard L. Dayton of Rhinelander, was the leading Wisconsin man in the Minnesota meet. He came in second. G. C. Wade of Wauwatosa finished fourth as the second Badger, and Henry C. Dennis of Cortland, New York, was the next to finish being in sixth place. These men were the only Wisconsin runners to finish in the top six.

GRAIN

Chicago Review.
Chicago, Nov. 12.—Wheat prices rallied today after a decline at the close of the previous session. A large amount of export business was done at the seaboard was the chief factor, whereas bearish financial conditions were assumed as reasons for the initial weakness. Opening quotations, which ranged from $1.10 to $1.12, with December 1.10 and March 1.11 to 1.12, were followed by a material further advance and then by sharp upticks.

Subsequently, decided fresh breaks took place, owing apparently to big downward swing in the value of freight rates and to reports of enlarged country offerings. The market conditions were assumed as reasons for the initial weakness. Opening quotations, which ranged from $1.10 to $1.12, with December 1.10
and March 1.11 to 1.12, were
followed by a material further
advance and then by sharp upticks.

Later, general liquidation by holders set in, and both corn and wheat prices advanced. Wheat prices closed unchanged, 1.12 to 1.13, and corn, with December 1.10 and March 1.11 to 1.12, were followed by a material further advance and then by sharp upticks.

Was Bady Run Down
From Pneumonia

Mrs. Washburn quickly regained her strength and health.

"I had gripped, followed by pneumonia, and left me with a terrible sore-ness in my chest, constant pain in my throat and a general weakness which neither rest nor sleep could relieve."

"One day a young man told me how his emulsion had got him out of bed and built him up after pneumonia had reduced him to a skeleton. I had heard of the doctors, so I tried it."

"I had heard of the doctors, so I tried it."

LAST OF KRUEGER
BROTHERS AT LARGE
IS TAKEN CAPTIVE

Chippewa Falls, Wis., Nov. 12.— Louis Krueger, 39, last at large of the celebrated four brothers who are alleged to have shot a posse at their farm home near Owen, Wis., two years ago, was captured yesterday because he hurried to watch a fire and was recognized by a former neighbor. Krueger is wanted as an alleged draft evader. The posse admitted his identity and said he had just arrived on a freight train. He declared he had not been at the Krueger farm since about four months before the fight with the deputies there, in which Harry Jensen, station agent at Owen, and one of the posse, was killed.

E. J. Crane, formerly a resident and neighbor of Owen, now operator of a grain elevator here, recognized Krueger among a crowd of spectators at a $10,000 fire in the Chippewa Rubber Company plant last night. "I recognized him," he said, "and he recognized me. He was overtaken after a chase of several blocks in an automobile." Krueger acknowledged the salutation, and quickly turned and hastened away, apparently to escape the posse. He was overtaken after a chase of several blocks in an automobile. Louis Krueger is alleged to have been in Owen, Wis., in 1918, when a posse surrounded the Krueger farm home near Withee after federal agents had met resistance there in an attempt to arrest the brothers on charges of evading the draft.

Two of the brothers, Leslie and Frank, are serving time in Washington state prison. Leslie was killed by the posse when he attempted to escape from the house.

Krueger said he had been in Montana most of the last two years.
